A typical family migration map contains starting location, arrows which show movement of the family through port of arrival in the U.S. and to the point(s) where the family settled and when. You will need to supply the text for 3 or 4 captions to explain their movements.

Family Name 1:

Starting (earliest) geographic location, for example: town, county and country.

--

Year(s):

--

Caption for the first text box (limit 25 words). If ship or port of arrival is known, include that information. (Example: "1848: John & Mary xxxxx & 5 children left County Clare, arriving on the ship Erin in New York City May 7.")

--

List additional locations & years. These will be points on the map. Use another sheet if you need more space.

Location	Years

Words for other caption boxes (Example: "The extended family group moves to Rockford, IL around 1865.")

Family Name 2:

Starting (earliest) geographic location, for example, town, county and country.

Year(s):

Caption for the text box (limit 25 words). If ship or port of arrival is known, include that information. (Example: "1848: John & Mary xxxxx & 5 children left County Clare, arriving on the ship Erin in New York City May 7.")

List additional locations & years. These will be points on the map.

Location	Years

Words for other caption boxes. (Example: "The extended family group moves to Rockford, IL around 1865.")
